Recent Novels

Excellent adapted for use in the preparation of Sermon-Book-Talks

The Needle's Eye: By Arthur Train
An extraordinary revelation of the life of the extremely wealthy, of the ways of great men of affairs, of the conflict between them and labor. ($2.00.)

Plumage: By Laurence Stallings
Says the Chicago Post: "As a protest against war this novel is as effective as anything written since the years of the great disaster." ($2.00.)

The Thirtieth Piece of Silver: By Lilian Hayes
A gripping story of the roaming through the world, down through the centuries, of the "thirtieth piece of silver" of Judas which tradition says got back into circulation, infecting men with the greed for wealth and power. ($2.00.)

The Middle of the Road: By Philip Gibbs
A really great novel, and a telling argument against war. ($2.00.)

High Pines: By Marjorie B. McClure
This book has received praise even from the most severe critics as not only good teaching but good literature. Here are contrasted the homes and families of Angus Stevenson, preacher and of the Stanhopes who are of the millionaire class. ($2.00.)

The Altar Steps: By Compton Mackenzie
A striking story of character development by the author of "Youth's Encounter," "Poor Relations," etc. ($2.00.)

Deep in the Hearts of Men: By Mary E. Waller
A fine novel of character by the author of "The Wood-Carver of Lynpus." ($2.00.)

The gift book for your friend who likes fiction—

THE NEEDLE'S EYE

By Arthur Train

The big American novel of this season. It is also admirably suited for treatment in a Book Sermon. Start off your series of book talks with a discussion of this remarkable story, which reveals in true gospel fashion the vanity of great wealth.
